Often, people throughout history who make an impact do so with their thoughts, their actions and, sometimes, their words. Read this quote a few times. Read it to yourself. Read it out loud. Give yourself a minute to really let the meaning of the words sink in.

Once you've done that, complete the items below.

1) Based on what you've learned about Shirley Chisholm, what idea or feeling was she trying to express with this quote? Include why you think she chose the specific words that she did.
