

2024 Wowzer Missions

Print out this calendar and hang it on your fridge.

Each time you successfully accomplish a mission, color in that month's box!

JANUARY

Operation A Year of WOWs

Grab a jar and place a stack of paper and pencil next to it. Encourage people to add their daily WOWs to the jar. At the end of this year, you'll have a year of WOWs to reminisce over!

FEBRUARY

Operation Whoa, You WOW Me

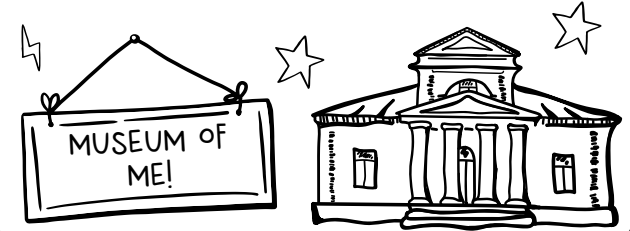

Write down ways that people in your life WOW you. Leave these notes in unexpected places where your friends and family will find them!

MARCH

Operation Mini Museum of YOU

Turn your bedroom, shelf, or corner of your home into a Mini Museum of YOU! Remember that museum collections are organized, labeled, and interestingly displayed! What does your collection say about you?

APRIL

Operation Will it Grow?

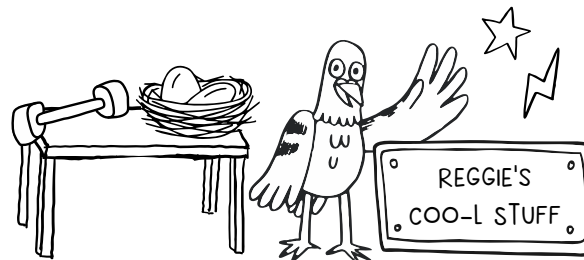

Gather seeds, soil, and small paper cups or an egg carton. Plant the seeds, label them, feed them water and sunlight, and observe which ones sprout to life!

MAY

Operation Pass the Wow!

With a grownup, look at clothing, toys, books, or games you've outgrown. Next, set up a small table outside your bedroom or home and open a pop-up swap shop! You can either trade these items or give them away to WOW someone else's day! Don't forget to name for your 'shop' and create a sign!

JUNE

Operation Photography Safari

Gather friends, family, and a camera and embark on a wild outdoor Photography Safari! Snap pictures of interesting insects, animal tracks, wildlife, and anything else that makes you say "WOW!"

JULY

Operation We ARE the Wow

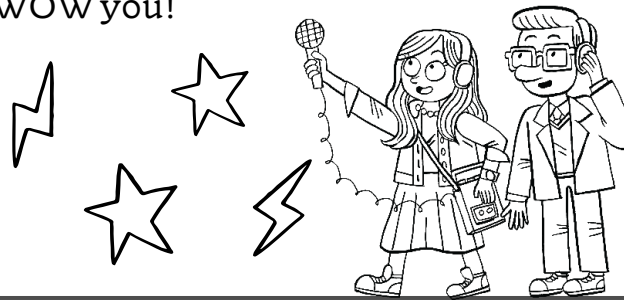

It's TALENT SHOW time! Set up an outdoor "stage" and invite friends and family to share their secret (or not so secret) talents that make them WOW!

AUGUST

Operation Time Travel

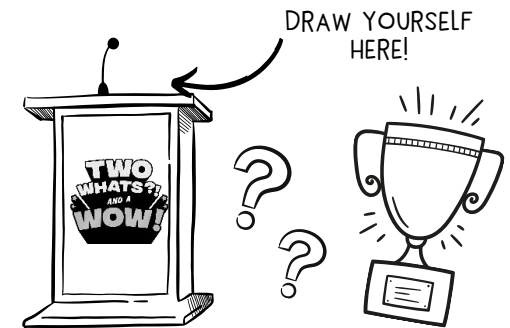

Interview members of your family and community to learn about their lives and life before you were born! Ask questions like "What's the first birthday you remember?" and "What games did you play as a kid?" and "Did you ever get in trouble?" The answers might really WOW you!

SEPTEMBER

Operation Trivia Attack

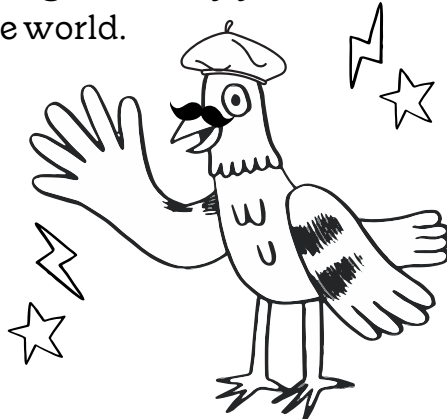

Collect WOW facts from teachers, classmates, friends, and family to create WOW trivia facts to use in your own episode of a Two Whats?! And A Wow! game show!

OCTOBER

Operation Alias Identity

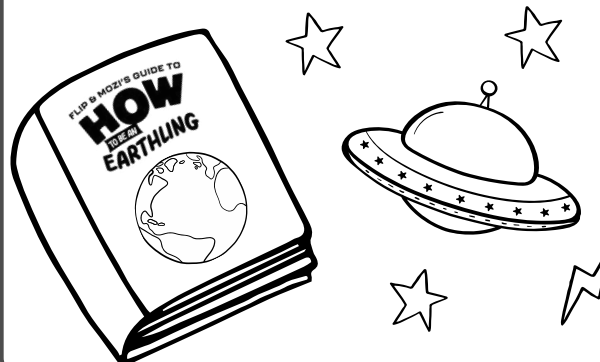

It's time to go undercover, Carly Q style! Using clothing, accessories, and a fake voice, disguise yourself as another person. Make notes on how assuming this alias identity changes the way you move through the world.

NOVEMBER

Operation How to Be an Earthling

Grab some friends and create an illustrated guide for space aliens visiting Earth for the first time! How would you describe our food, clothing, sports, manners, school, video games, podcasts?

DECEMBER

Operation Year-End Celebration

Bust out the WOW jar and reflect on all the things that WOW'd you and your friends and family this year!

Thanks for WOW-ing with us this year!
