Where in the world will you be when this happens???

ACTIVITY
WOW TO:

TIME CAPSULE OF WOW

Time capsules are great for capturing a moment in time and communicating about it with the future. Make a Time Capsule of WOW to capture your wow-worthy eclipse day!

- 1 Choose a vessel. An empty bottle, jar or shoe box will all work.
- 2 Fill it with things that will remind your future self of where in the world you were during the solar eclipse of 2024.
- 3 Seal the time capsule and then hide or bury it. Now try to forget all about it! This is the hard part, but you can do it!
- 4 Rediscover your capsule in the future. We suggest waiting at least one year but the longer you wait the more fun it will be to open it up!

What in the world might you include in your time capsule?

- A letter to your future self
- A drawing of where in the world you live
- Photos of family and friends
- A newspaper clipping from the day of the eclipse
