

PEOPLE WHO WOW!

WATCH PARTY WARDROBE!

Why not invite your friends and family to come dressed as a person in history who once Wow'd the world! Here are some ideas to help get you started, or come up with your own!

Katherine Johnson was a brilliant mathematician who helped NASA figure out how to send astronauts into space, and how to bring them safely home!

- Button-up shirt or cardigan
- Skirt or slacks
- Notebook & pencil (for “math calculations”)
- NASA logo or badge

Leonardo da Vinci was an artist, inventor, and thinker who imagined flying machines, painted masterpieces, and asked BIG questions about how the world works.

- Loose shirt
- Scarf or sash
- Sketchbook with “inventions”
- Paintbrush
- Fake beard

Jane Goodall was a scientist who studied chimpanzees and showed the world how smart and social animals really are.

- Khaki shirt & pants or shorts
- Binoculars
- Stuffed monkey or chimp
- Hair pulled back or in a low ponytail if it's long enough

Jackie Robinson was the first Black baseball player in Major League Baseball in the modern era, breaking the color barrier and showing courage, skill, and sportsmanship.

- White baseball pants or sweatpants
- Baseball jersey or simple shirt with “42” taped to the the back
- Baseball, glove, bat, or ball
- Be sure to sliiiiide into the party like it's home base